HAZEL GREEN, KY.: WEDNESDAY, NOV. 11, 1885

Transient advertisements inserted at 75 cents per inch first insertion, and 25 cents an inch each subsequent insertion.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. James H. Little was in town on last Tuesday.

Work on the high school building is progressing finely.

Mrs. E. P. Mickel, of this place, is threatened with pneumonia.

Born—To the wife of Q. C. Daniel, Nov. 8th, a girl, Rachel Roxie, nine pounds.

Those who bring stock here today need not expect very large prices, as the market below is very dull.

Taylor Johnson, who recently moved here from Ezel, has concluded to move back to that place.

John Howerton, of Morgan county, has bought Hon. W. O. Mize's interest in the Hazel Green Mills, and took possession yesterday morning.

Enith, little daughter of Wm. Lusk, whose illness was reported last week, is improving, and it is now thought she will soon be restored to health.

THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD (weekly) and the Cincinnati Evening Post (daily) will both be furnished to parties in this section for $2.50 a year—7 papers a week, or $64 a year for $2.50. Subscribe now.

The hotel property advertised in this paper, the Day House, is one of the most desirable locations in the State, and as a home for commercial men is second to none in this section. Do not fail to examine it, if you want a bargain.

The bell for the Presbyterian Church at this place has been received, and will be placed in position as soon as possible. It weighs upwards of 600 pounds and is of very fine tone. It was a gift from the Presbyterian Church at Nicholasville.

Breen's Liniment removes knots and all enlargements on horses or other stock. No cure no pay. Sold by J. T. & F. DAY, Hazel Green, D. D. LANDSAU, Stillwater, CASADY & ROBERTSON, Campton.

Alfred Little, on trial in the U. S. Court at Louisville, was on Friday last convicted on six more counts, making 26 in all. The opinion has been expressed that if he should be given the full penalty of the law, he will be sent up for 100 years.

The following indictments were found by the grand jury at the last term of the Wolfe circuit court: Shooting and wounding; 1; hog stealing; 1; weapons; 24; breach of the peace; 12; selling liquor; 11; injury to stock; 1; disturbing school; 1; disturbing worship, 8.

Breen's Liniment is pronounced by all who have used it to be the greatest remedy for rheumatism, sprains, cuts, bruises, etc. Sold by J. T. & F. DAY, Hazel Green, D. D. LANDSAU, Stillwater, CASADY & ROBERTSON, Campton.

C. W. Horton, the tree man, has the fruit trees he has sold to parties in this section now ready for delivery, and will be obliged if they will call to-morrow and get what they have engaged. He has the finest winter fruit we have ever seen—the Limber Twig, a specimen of which is before us—and every farmer should have a few of the trees.

You are going to Mt. Sterling next Monday, and while there you should call and buy your darling a bonnet. Where will you buy it? Why, of Mrs. Kate O. Clark. You could certainly not think of buying from any one else. She has the finest stock of hats, bonnets, &c. in Eastern Kentucky, and when you look over her stock you will say we know whereof we speak.

Our circuit court begins next Monday. Do not fail to call at the Scorching office and look at our cabinet of curiosities—especially the unpaid bills—Licking Valley Scorching.

We have ceased to embalm unpaid bills as curiosities. When candidates fail to pay for their announcements, we fail to see the curiosity, but would like to see the collateral.

LOOK HERE—Read this, please—We have carried slow customers until we are loaded down, and it is impossible to continue to credit those whose notes and accounts are past due. We must have pay from you, and will take live stock at its value on notes and accounts. Do not call for credit, even if you are good, if you are owing us, and have not settled. We mean what we say. J. T. & F. DAY.

Tom Gose, of Bath county, who has been visiting friends on Upper Grassy, in Morgan county, is probably the largest specimen of manhood now in Kentucky. He is 24 years of age, 6 feet 8 inches in height, weighs 220 pounds, and wears a No. 14 boot, the sole of which is 15 inches in length. He was raised in Rowan county. As Barnum recently had the misfortune to lose "Junio," the largest elephant in the world, he might in a measure console himself by negotiating with Mr. Gose and securing him to pose as the Kentucky giant.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EASTERN KENTUCKY NEWS BY COUNTRIES.

Reported by Special Correspondents from All Points in the Mountains.

WOLFE COUNTY.

CAMPTON, Nov. 7.—Rev. Davidson, of Irvine, of the M. E. Church, preached in town on the night of the 31st ult., and also of 1st inst., to large audiences. Bro. Davidson is a profound thinker, and he is enabled, by his vast comprehensiveness of mind, to delve deep down into the mysteries and truths of theology, which to many are mystified on account of their inattention to those subjects, and present them to unprejudiced minds in such a manner as is both pleasing and instructive. He together with Bro. Pieratt, and others will commence a series of meetings at this place on the second Sunday in December.

Rev. J. R. Kendall, of the M. E. Church South, of the Hazel Green circuit, preached in town on the 26th ult. to a good crowd. He held his audience spell bound for about 30 minutes, by his superior oratorical powers. His words seemed like "apples of gold in pictures of silver." The people of Campton are very favorably impressed with Bro. Kendall and would be pleased to have him preach for them again.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt, of the Christian Church, preached in town several nights this week. Bro. Pieratt is a zealous worker in the cause in which he has enlisted, and it seems that his labors in this part have been rewarded with abundant success. May he continue in his work and be faithfully the herald of the Lord, and in the "sweet bye and bye," together with the fruits of his labors, will be harvested home.

Died—On the 1st inst., of dropsy, Samuel Napier, Sr., who has been ill for some time; aged 70 years. Also on the 5th inst., Laura Tolson, daughter of Joseph Tolson, aged 17, and Green Cable, son of Conrad Cable, aged two years.

Our circuit court adjourned to-day. There were several important cases tried and decided, and several continued on account of absence of important witnesses. Our jail is nearly filled to its utmost capacity.

We are authorized to announce that Rev. W. L. Stampler will preach the funeral service of H. Floyd Williams, at this place, on the second Sunday in January.

Alex. Osborn has sold his town property to Mrs. Rachel Stampler, who moved to it on last Thursday. Mr. Osborn moved to his farm in the country.

Rev. G. G. Ragan has moved to town, having rented a house of C. M. Hanks. We gladly welcome him.

Daniel Noble was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of five years.

Miss Eliza McClain is visiting the family of W. Hazel, of this place.

Stillwater, Nov. 5.—Died—Nov. 4, a small child of the widow Taylor. The child was found dead in the bed. It seems like Miranda is loaded down with trouble. It has only been about five months since her husband died. But who would not childless be to give a child to God.

Tempy Sparks, who is staying with D. L. Williams, is probably as old a woman as there is in this county. Notwithstanding she is blind and afflicted with rheumatism so she cannot walk, she is lively and hearty, and would try to work if they would let her.

We are blessed with good stores, mills, and blacksmith shops on Stillwater. D. D. Landsau and J. M. Rose are our merchants; Powell and Silas Rose our millers; O. C. Lawson our smith.

John Tester is killing some fine bees, which he is selling at 5 and 6 cents per pound net.

Mrs. M. V. Lawson has a quilt with 1169 pieces in it. Who will beat it?

BREATHITT COUNTY.

JACKSON, Nov. 5.—G. H. Strother, the plasterer of the Presbyterian Church, arrived here Wednesday from a business trip to Mt. Sterling. Mr. Strother has quite an influence with the girls in our town. Being an active, polite and energetic young gentleman, we presume there is a chance for him.

Rev. W. B. Cooper returned to Jackson last Friday, after a month's absence visiting his family at Walnut Hill, near Lexington, and attending Synod at Mt. Sterling. He is highly esteemed by our people for his industry in the Master's cause.

Mrs. Rhoda Carpenter, of Gypsy, Magoffin county, has been visiting her son-in-law, R. E. Smith, this week.

EH Carpenter and wife, of Bouscane, have been visiting friends and relations at this place the past week.

David Williams, of Campton, was in town Tuesday purchasing yellow root, ginseng, &c.

Dr. W. T. Wilson attended Campton circuit court Monday and Tuesday.

Joseph Walton, of Lewellyn, Lee county, gave us a flying visit Thursday.

Wm. Combs is attending Campton circuit court this week, without leave.

MORGAN COUNTY.

MATTOWNS, Nov. 5.—M. G. Dunaway went all parties that have spoken to him for stands of the celebrated Italian bees to come and receive them, as now is the proper time to move them.

Miss Mollie Conway, who has been very low with fever, is thought to be a little better.

John Prather and wife, of Salyersville, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Dr. Dixon, at this place.

W. T. Day, our marshal, is still at Louisville attending the U. S. court.

E. J. Rogers has gone to Winchester this week on business.

LICK SKILLER.

Tazewell County Items for The Herald.

CEDAR BLUFF, Nov. 1.—Colonel Bill Graham, the Democratic candidate for Senate, and Major Henry, of Jeffersonville, passed through Indian yesterday, the latter accompanied by "Extra Bill" Smith, en route for Grundy, Va., where they were expected to deliver a political address to the people of that place.

Mrs. Norton with her husband, father and brother, of Kentucky, but formerly of Virginia, landed here on the 25th of October, to the great surprise of their friends.

Miss Rachel Steele, with her brother, Robert B. Steele, were the guests of Nannie Julia Cecil last Monday.

Rev. Patton J. Lockheart will preach the funeral of Mrs. Tom Lester, nee Neal, to-day at Steele's Chapel.

Charles M. Young, of Sinking Waters, is attending school at this place now. News being "scare" this week THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD must not grumble. E. H. Scott made a flying visit to Grundy last week. GARKKY.

PERSONAL.

Milford Berry and wife, of Nicholas county, who were here for two weeks, left for home Thursday morning. Mrs. Berry came here to drink Swango water for her health, and was much improved when she left.

Mrs. Eva Baber, of Dow City, Iowa, is visiting her old home here. She will remain until April, for the purpose of drinking Swango water for her health.

J. T. Coons, of Campton, is at the Swango Springs for his health. We predict that John will return home much improved in health.

Miss Rosa Lee Kash, the accomplished teacher at the John Rose school house, spent Saturday night and Sunday with her parents at this place.

Miss Lula Cockrell, of Ezel, was visiting friends and relatives in Hazel Green last week, but returned home on Saturday last.

Dr. J. L. Rowland, of Salyersville, spent a week with friends in Hazel Green, and returned home last Saturday.

Edward Marcum, of Jackson, stopped at the Pieratt House last Sunday night, en route home from Louisville.

The Misses Eura and Emma Steele, of Campton, were visiting friends in Hazel Green and vicinity last week.

Mrs. Fannie Thomas, who has been visiting friends here for a week returned home last Wednesday.

Judge John E. Cooper was a guest of the Day House last Saturday night.

J. Banford White, Esq., stopped at the Day House last Saturday night.

Hon. J. W. Kendall was a guest of the Pieratt House last Saturday night.

J. Taylor Day is attending the Morgan Circuit Court this week.

Irving Irving, of Mt. Sterling, was in town Sunday.

The Postmaster Speaks for Himself.

About 10 days ago an application for a change of schedule on the mail route from Cornwell to Hazel Green was presented to me for my signature. I refused to sign it because I thought the change would be detrimental to the people of this section; and did so without consulting the editor of THE HERALD or any one else. J. H. EVANS, P. M.
